Pete,
I'm so glad we have this year in between we will become closer friends in the future
I hope next year
we will have fun together. Maybe I'll see you to Gen. Care
Karen

Quietly apart,
away from their world,
lost in my own,
gently, music fills
the air replacing the still about me.
it is sounds
created from our need for expression, captured by our minds
intensifying a moment, sustaining, creating or changing a surrounding mood,
my emotions
riding with the music.

Hillcrest High School is moods and moments,
individuals and crowds,
riding with the music.

Adro,
Español has really been fun, this is our second year in Español together.
Miguel's too! Maybe we'll have a class
together next year
(other than Spanish)
Lots of Luck
Love always
Julia

"It's really fine to have the chance to hang around."

— John Denver

"Who cares what I might be for real underneath my games. I'll let you choose from a thousand faces and a thousand names."

— Carly Simon

"I am different from everyone around me, as a sapling from a willow, or a seed from a blooming flower. I drew my life from the breath of Mother Earth as I became myself, reflecting the image of that which was around me. I am a unicorn in the zoo."

Everyone is part of a crowd, following the rules of the game. Each tries to be like all the others, mirrored images within themselves. Yet, an individual breaks the rules. He searches for himself. He thinks on a different level from those around him.

Sometimes in our lives we all have pain, we all have sorrow.
But if we are wise,
we know that there's always tomorrow.

Lean on me, when you're not strong and I'll be your friend, I'll help you carry on
For it won't be long 'til I'm gonna need somebody to lean on.

Please, swallow your pride if I have things you need to borrow,
For no one can fill those of your needs
that you won't let show.

You just call on me, brother,
when you need a hand,
We all need somebody to lean on.
I just might have a problem that you'll understand,
We all need somebody to lean on.
— Bill Withers

The desegregation suit against the D.I.S.D. is now in the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals, which has yet to rule. City officials argue, leaders debate, and parents discuss the issue, but no one asks the students. Our concern is not so much with busing as an issue, but in receiving good quality education.

A relationship between blacks and whites cannot evolve overnight, or in a year. There have been so many years of growing hostilities and stereotypes, that now we need time to see one another as individuals. Peace among blacks and whites is a beautiful thing.

"Some things take so long, but how do I explain?

When not too many people can see we're all the same

And because of all their tears,
Their eyes can't hope to see
The beauty that surrounds them —

Isn't it a pity."

— George Harrison

I've been there and back — the Franklin parking lot. Getting up at 6 a.m. to get to the Aberdeen parking lot, which was all filled up. Then I fight my way around to the Franklin lot and navigate through the small opening. Suddenly, the blinding jolt that causes permanent whiplash. You say you've never been to the Grand Canyon? Think again! Next comes the cross country hike through mud and gravel to the street, across the open battlefield of Lakehurst . . .

... through the narrow opening in the wire fence, strategically planning my way across mud trenches in the practice field. Carefully I thread a trail through wet marshes to avoid pools of quick sand I know are expecting me. Across an improvised bridge some kind soul has left behind, and then . . . VICTORY — I have reached the safety of the sidewalks. But that is only one small skirmish in the continuing battle that knows no end.

Having reached the building, my mission is to safely reach my locker and avoid being captured by the “national guard.” The bell rings . . . Suddenly people spring from nowhere. Their objective is to detain me from getting to class on time. I am carried through endless people, down endless halls, up endless stairs, past endless lockers — none of them mine. Doors and elbows swing out to attack me from all sides. Finally, there it is! Hmmm, am I thinking of last year’s locker number, this year’s gym number, or this year’s locker number? Oh well, it’s jammed anyway! Struggling under my load of books I advance towards my first period class . . .

. . . Near the end of first period I received a pink slip inviting me to the counselor's office. Upon arrival I was mobbed by thousands of people — apparently it was a big party. The hostess had stepped out for a minute, but she'll be back shortly. Having stood on my feet long enough, I decided to leave. Another bell rings . . . Now what schedule are we on? Is it 3-4-5 or 5-3-4, or is that my locker number? . . .

. . . The morning stretches on with nothing to do. Some of my "grafitti-freak" friends amuse themselves with chalk and board. Twelve years in school and this is all we can do. Just think what we will be able to do in four years! . . .

. . . Sometimes during the day, someone approaches me about the campaign. Their big words and complicated arguments about the issues make me glad I'm not quite old enough to vote. Now and then I just try to get away from it all. I slip into a good book, or just give up and go to sleep. Sometimes though, I have to face what is going on and I take the time to think about it. Being alone, at these times, is the best way to figure things out . . .

I think I ought to try out for the track team. I spend most of my time running down the halls. As I run past the classrooms I glance in to see what I'm missing. Sometimes I am greeted with smiles and sometimes I am greeted with bewilderment. I see students and strangers, friends and freaks, all trying to survive the day.

It only takes a spark to get a fire going,
 And soon all those around can warm up in its glowing;
 That's how it is with God's love
 Once you've experienced it;
 You spread His love to everyone,
 You want to pass it on.

What a wondrous time is spring, when all the trees are budding,
 The birds begin to sing, the flowers start their blooming;
 That's how it is with God's love
 Once you've experienced it;
 You want to sing, it's fresh like spring,
 You want to pass it on.

I wish for you, my friend, this happiness that I've found;
 You can depend on Him, it matters not where you're bound
 I'll shout it from the mountain top,
 I want my world to know;
 The Lord of love has come to me,
 I want to pass it on.

In the midst of assembly line education, one important factor is missing . . . the dedicated teacher. But far beyond the boundaries of 'blah' exists a person labelled Teacher who, fighting the machinery, is unlike the rest. Mrs. Jean Stroud possesses a rare ability to teach with sincerity and genuine concern for her students. The unique quality of faith in her students as people allows her to employ complete fairness in relating to each individual. She has indefinite patience and an open mind which enable her to gain respect of those students who learn with her.

We commend Mrs. Stroud for a job well done by dedicating to her the 1973 Panther.

In the past years athletics have suffered at Hillcrest. Students, male and female, dedicate time and energy to promoting this school in various activities. To some these teams are a big joke, clowns, wasting their effort. Yet, they keep playing, keep winning, keep losing. Maybe the joke is on those that do not support the athletic program.

HHS Presents:

The 1973 musical portrayed the life of George M. Cohan, the original "Yankee Doodle" boy. George Michael Cohan, who was played by Randy Segal, began his life in Providence, Rhode Island, in 1878. The story moved rapidly from Cedar Rapids, all the way to the top-Broadway. He began his career as a young boy, as he joined his parents, Jerry (James Loss) and Nellie (Connie Casad), and his sister Josie (Diane Humphries) in their vaudeville act. They were known as The Four Cohans.

George M. had great dreams he wanted to fulfill. All his life, he was a determined, strong willed, persistent man who refused to allow people to block his road to success. As time went on, he reached the peak of his profession. Audiences soon began to desire the new talents of 1937, and George had to learn the hard way about life and people. The all American boy could now only "Give his regards to Braodway."

Choral Director, Roy E. Johnson; Orchestra Director, Weldon, Wendland; Choreographer, Suzanne Paine; and Art Director, Margaret Hudson, along with the all the talented members of the cast and crew, worked uncountable, long hours, to insure the success of this poduction.

*It's cold and getting colder
It's grey and white and winter all around,
and oh, I must be getting older,
All this snow is trying to get me down.
There's a fire in the corner slowly dyin',
Sometimes I just don't feel like going on anymore,
but I know it's more than worth the waitn',
For another chance to see the summer sun.*

— John Denver

What appears to be an ending . . . is actually a beginning.

An editorial campaign led by John Henneberger, Ken Brack, and other conscientious students ignited the spark which resulted in the necessary innovations for the preservation of Hillcrest High School. Rising to its many challenges and problems during the year, Principal John C. Marshall, also deserves immeasurable gratitude and admiration. Through the use of media, which was straight forward and effective rather than resorting to violent actions, miracles still can happen!

Melts in your mouth not in your hands.

Home run over the left field fence!

Should I risk the cafeteria or handle a whopper?

Friends

And that's the truth, Plllhh!!!

You've got a point there!

And then I'll tell them we ran out of gas.

Hi Pete,

I'm so glad I've had this chance to get to know you. I'd really been fun. I hope and pray each day I'll never have to leave my chosen friends they're as much fun. The only sweet little thing I know to say is a little love you have to think about and use it's...

"For wherever happiness may find, must share it. Happiness was born a twin."

Love,

Cindy

Peter,

I really don't know what to say. I never thought you'd ask me to sign this! We've seem to have drifted apart but that's probably because we weren't in any classes together. I hope we can become close friends again.
You're really a neat guy.
Love always,
Cheri Ellen

Pedro,
